

SENATE PLAGIARISM POLICY - Declaration by Students

I/we am/are a student registered for HSS HONS in the year 2025.

Assignment for which I submit this declaration: Research Protocol

Title of my assignment: AI-driven tools to prevent mental health burnout among medical professionals: A Scoping Review

I/we hereby declare the following:

I am aware that plagiarism (the use of someone else's work without their permission and/or without acknowledging the original source) is wrong and a prosecutable offence	EC
I confirm that ALL the work submitted for assessment for the above course is my or our own unaided work except where I have explicitly indicated otherwise.	EC
I have followed the required conventions in referencing the thoughts and ideas of others.	EC
I understand that the University of the Witwatersrand may take disciplinary action against me if there is a belief that this is not my own unaided work or that I have failed to acknowledge the source of the ideas or words in my writing.	EC
I acknowledge that the responsibility to not plagiarise and falsify information lies with me the owner of the work. Therefore, I am certain that the information and sources used in my assignment are valid and reliable and that I fact-checked.	EC
I acknowledge that this is my/our own work capturing our tone and voice and point of view and not a direct submission generated text from ChatGPT or other LLMs	EC

ChatGPT acknowledgement

I hereby acknowledge that AI tools, including Perplexity and ChatGPT, were utilised during the preparation of this research paper. Perplexity was employed to assist with in-depth research and synthesis of relevant literature, while ChatGPT was used for editing purposes to enhance grammatical accuracy and clarity of expression. However, these AI tools did not contribute to the conceptualisation, analysis, or generation of original ideas presented in this paper.
