Question 1   0 / 1 pts

As a student of the University of the Witwatersrand, I recognise the importance of integrity in my personal, student, and professional life. I commit myself to being part of the University's community of integrity. As such I pledge to be guided by the six fundamental values of academic integrity - honesty, trust, fairness, respect, responsibility, and courage.. Through adhering to these values I strive to uphold the highest standards of academic integrity as I understand that this is the expectation placed on me for being part of the academic community. My commitment obliges me to conduct myself according to the University of the Witwatersrand Honour Code.

I hereby agree that I will (please check all the boxes)

☑
Familiarise myself will all forms of academic dishonesty and acknowledge that ignorance is not considered an excuse as being a student with integrity is my responsibility as being part of the academic community

☑
Adhere to the rules and regulations governing exams and assignments and that I will not use electronic resources, copy, or collaborate with others without the permission from the instructor

Stay clear from all forms of academic misconduct , including but not limited to plagiarism, data falsification, falsifying references, and collusion

☑ Not self-plagiarise or submit work that I have previously submitted to other assignments or courses

☑ Not plagiarise by copying the work of other students and submitting it as my own

☑ Give credit to the sources I use and acknowledge the contributions and ideas of other people in my academic work

☑
Report circumstances that may compromise academic honesty, such as inattentive proctoring or premature posting of answers, among others
